

When : April 1st, 2011
4/1/11 6pm to 4/2/11 9am

Who: Middle School-ers
Where: St. Albert the Great

What: Lock-In(s) are overnight events for teens where we play games, enjoy our faith, help out the community through a service project of some sort and basically have FUN! We call them a Lock-In because everyone stays together and doesn't leave without a parent signing them out.

What to bring: Sleeping bag – if you want – rarely does one actually sleep at these ©....Something comfortable to wear / play/rest/etcFriends.....Snacks.....

Required Items: Good Attitude, Permission Slip and $20 (scholarships available)

Questions: Contact Alley White at alley.white@gmail.com or 408 464 4622